ITINERARY

Day 01:: Arrive Paro and sightseeing in Paro

Entering by Air. The two national carriers of Bhutan are Drukair and Bhutan Airlines, who fly regularly to Paro.

1. Arriving from Bangkok to Paro: 4 flights Per Week (Durations: 3hrs)
2. Arriving from Kathmandu to Paro: 1 flights Per day (Durations: 1 hrs. 30 minute)
3. Arriving from Delhi to Paro: 1 flight daily (durations: 2h 15 minute)

The flight into Paro on our national carrier, Druk Air, is a befitting introduction to the spectacular beauty of our country. In clear weather, magnificent views of the world's highest peaks give way to the lush green Paro valley as you land. First gift from Bhutan will be the cool, clean fresh air as you step out of the plane.

During our tour in Paro, we visit Paro Dzong, perhaps the finest example of Bhutanese architecture as well as a local religious administrative center. We also visit Ta Dzong, an ancient watchtower housing the National Museum, with abundant culture relics. After that, visit to Kyichu Lhakhang, one of the oldest temples in Bhutan and ends at a local farm house, where you can chat with local people, see how they live and may taste some homemade wine.

Overnight: Paro

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 02:: Hike to Tiger nest monastery and drive to Thimphu

Today after breakfast, our journey starts from Northwest of Paro, we take a trip to the famous monastery Taktsang (about 3,150m) also known as the Taktsang Palphug Monastery and the Tiger's Nest. Which impressively perched on the rock. After about two and a half hour climb on partially unpaved road (sturdy footwear required) you reach this for the Bhutanese holiest place, about 900 meter above the Paro valley.

Horseback riding to the viewpoint is possible for a fee of approximately $ 15. The monastery is also called the Tiger's Nest because of its exposed location and a tale about Tantric Padmasambhava (Guru Rinpoche). After the sightseeing, you will descend again into the valley and have lunch halfway in the Taktshang cafeteria. Then we drive to Thimphu, the capital city of Bhutan. The drive will take around 1 hour. Thimphu has a population about 100,000. The town is made up of just three lines of shops and is the only capital in the world without traffic lights. In the evening, we will visit the Handicrafts Emporium, where all types of Bhutanese handicrafts are made and sold, overnight at hotel.

Overnight: Thimphu

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 03:: Thimphu sightseeing – drive to Punakha

Full day to tour the capital of Bhutan, where there are lots to see and do. Visit Buddha Dordenma Statue and Takin Sanctuary, memorial Chorten and Zilukha nunnery, a Viewpoint, followed by visit to traditional Art school (also called painting school) and visit Indigenous Hospital. In between, we can stop at the Post Office for stamps or send postcard home. See the textile academy and museum, stroll through the Farmer's market, peek at Changlimithang ground, where you may see the archery (national game) in progress. Stroll in the core city area, and shop for souvenirs. After that we drive to Punakha.

An exciting ride takes you over the Dochu-La pass (3150 m) to Punakha (1250 m). From the pass marked with 108 small rectangular chapels, you have a fantastic view over the mountains of the Eastern Himalayas on clear days. In Punakha, you will find the 400-year-old Dzong of the same name - one of the most magnificent facilities in Bhutan. After lunch on the riverside, you can try out Bhutan's national sport archery.

Overnight: Punakha

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 04:: Punakha sightseeing - drive to Paro

In Punakha, We visit Chimmi Lhakhang, a temple dedicated to the Devine Madman and a sacred place where people pray for children. Next embrace the highlight - Punakha Dzong, a very beautiful Bhutanese architecture armed by the Pho Chu and Mo Chu rivers, with rich Buddhist collections. You will also visit Suspension Bridge nearby (the longest bridge in Bhutan).

Today we return via the Dochu-La Pass to Paro. On the way you make a short hike (walking time approx. 1 hour) to the fertility temple Chime Lhakhang, around whose emergence an old legend entwines. Depending on the road conditions and progress you will have some time in the afternoon in Paro to explore the city on your own. In the evening you can try on a traditional Bhutanese robe (Kira for the women or Go for the men).

Overnight: Paro

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
