A Manaslu expedition is one of the very popular expeditions above 8000 meters peak. Our expert Sherpa guide use new safer route to climb Mt. Manaslu (8,163m/26,781 ft.). The new route is quite popular in last few years. Mountain Sherpa Trekking & Expeditions has planned fixed departure climbing for Mt. Manaslu for adventure climbers to fulfill their dream project. Our fixed departure groups join manaslu Spring expeditions 2020 offers you an opportunity to share the permit, join individual or group mountaineers with international climbing team.

Our special group join Manaslu expedition package allow you to save your budget, share permit fee, climb with other climbers and summit the peak with specialized climbing Sherpa's with private care and support. Manaslu 8,163 meters lies about 64 KM east of Mount Annapurna, the natives also know the eighth highest peak in the world as "Kutang". Though there were numerous expeditions to Manaslu earlier but expedition to Manaslu was officially unlocked only in 1991.

Manaslu is also known as "Mountain of Spirit". The name derives from Sanskrit. Toshio Imanishi from Japan and Gyaltsen Norbu of Nepal made the first climb of Manaslu in 9th May 1956. Mountain Sherpa Trekking & Expeditions has been a mainstay of Himalayan mountaineering and trekking since 1998. We has led successful climbs to Saribung Peak, Lobuche Peak, Chulu east and west, Manaslu, Ama Dablam, Mera Peak, Tharpa chuli and Island Peak. Our expert and professional Sherpa guide team leads all our scheduled climbing trips.
